

Fighting fraud in the NHS

Crossword

Version 1 October 2025

Introduction

This word search is a fun and engaging way to start conversations about the important role we all play in protecting NHS resources. Local Counter Fraud Specialists (LCFSs) can use it as a promotional item or icebreaker at events, meetings, and training sessions. It helps raise awareness of fraud risks in the NHS in an accessible way, encourages people to think about key terms, and opens the door to further discussion about how staff and the public can help prevent, detect, and report fraud.

About the NHS Counter Fraud Authority (NHSCFA)

The NHS Counter Fraud Authority (NHSCFA) is a special health authority dedicated to tackling fraud, bribery, and corruption across the NHS and wider health group in England. By investigating fraud, raising awareness, and working with partners across the health sector, the NHSCFA protects valuable NHS resources so they can be used to deliver safe and effective patient care. The authority also provides guidance, intelligence, and support to Local Counter Fraud Specialists and NHS organisations, ensuring a coordinated approach to fighting fraud.
